

RAUN K. KAUFMAN

Former CEO of the Autism Treatment Center of America™

As a child, Mr. Kaufman was diagnosed with severe autism and recommended for lifelong institutionalization. Instead, his parents developed The Son-Rise Program®, which enabled their son to completely recover from his autism with no trace of his former condition.

A graduate of the Ivy League's Brown University with a degree in Biomedical Ethics, Mr. Kaufman has written articles featured in a host of books and journals and has been interviewed by media such as National Public Radio, Fox News Channel, and People Magazine.

He co-hosts the radio show: Raun & Kristin: Bringing Hope Into Your Home on Autism One Radio and has just finished a book detailing autism breakthrough strategies.
